

About

The association

- organisation of and for university presses across Europe
- founded in 2010
- by now consisting of 24 presses and two patron members, coming from 12 different countries within the European Union
- annual meetings
- joint catalogue

Why ?

AEUP's survey 2015

- to learn more about ...
 - the European university presses' needs
 - views on challenges of the future
 - relevance of Open Access
 - demand for networking and support

Questions on

- Publishing program
- Business models
- Institutional support
- Quality control
- Author's needs
- Going digital
- Open Access

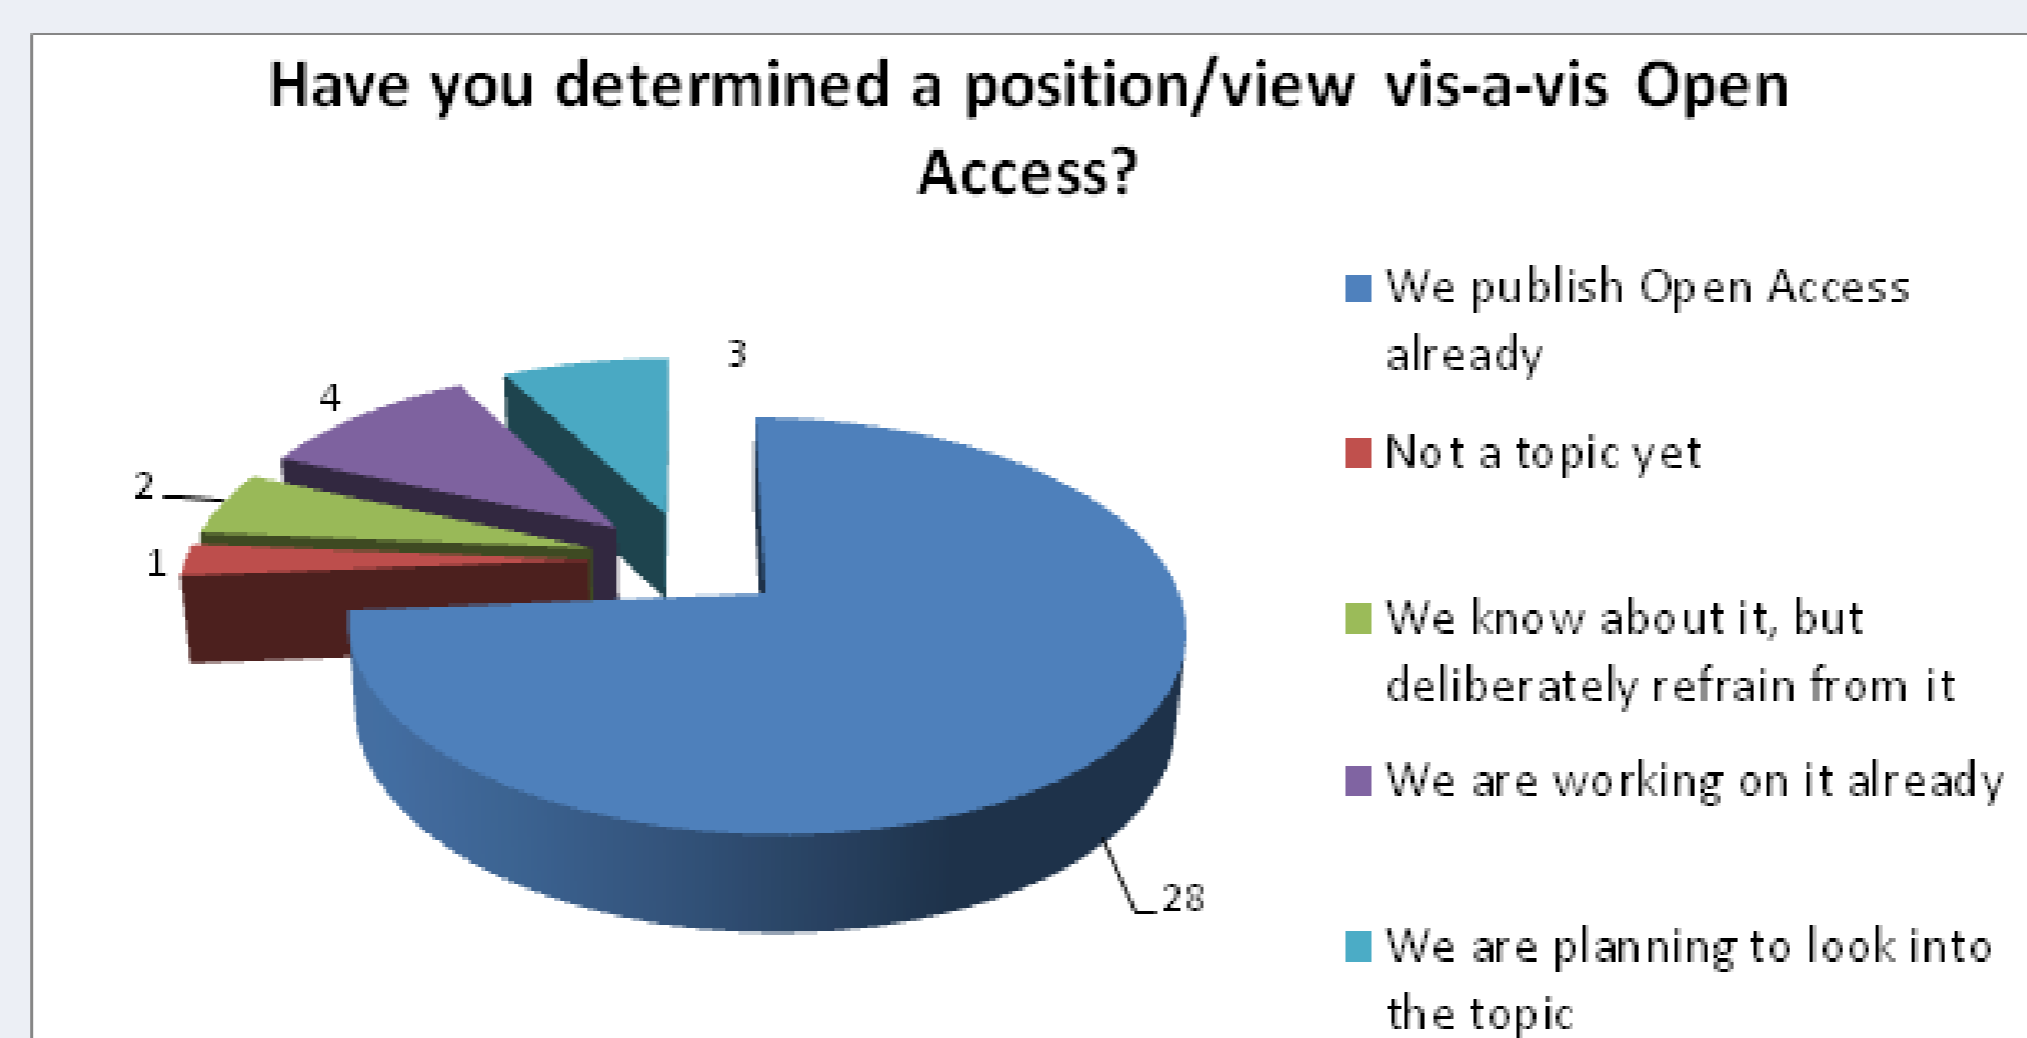

When ?

- phase # 1: 06–08 / 2015
- phase # 2: starting now

Who ?

- phase # 1: 38 European UPs from 9 different countries
- 28 non-members / 10 members

First results !

“ We want AEUP to take up the following topics as soon as possible ...

- Help in international sales
- Improving the joint catalog
- Support on OA strategies
- Funding strategies for OA monos in the Arts & Humanities
- E-publishing
- OA as reliable business model”

Complete the survey: <http://www.aeup.eu/aeup/survey>

Meet the members –
Next annual meeting: Frankfurt Book Fair, Oct. 14th, 2015, 5:30 pm (non-members)

www.aeup.eu info@aeup.eu